Dan,

I talked to Jim about the timing of the seminar, and said that for a number of reasons (including Moorsteen's arrival, and both your and my other commitments) the seminar most probably would not be held until October or November. He agreed to mention this change in timing on the phone either to Sullivan or Deitchman in the next several weeks, but didn't feel that the letter constituted a commitment nor that it needed to be withdrawn and changed. We left it at that.
